

Research

My research interests deal with applications of digital signal processing, microprocessor applications, digital and microprocessor applications, fuzzy logic and U.S government sponsored projects in international engineering student exchange among U.S, Canada and Mexico. I usually involve graduate students, Masters Degree candidates in my research.