STUDENT APPLICATION
2019: Google’s Computer Science Summer Institute Extension Program

Program overview: Chico State has partnered with Google to deliver Google’s Computer Science Summer Institute Extension (CSSIx) Program that targets a cohort of incoming 2019 Freshmen students. The CSSIx program will be held during the summer of 2019 for a period of 3 weeks at Chico State’s O’Connell Technology Center within the Engineering College. The goal is to provide an on-campus summer experience for first-year students studying computer science and related STEM fields. Similar to the CSSI programs that take place at Google sites, this program is designed for students who are underrepresented in computing (i.e. women, underrepresented minorities in STEM, first-generation, and low-income students).

Dates: July 29th – August 16th (3 weeks)
Time: Monday-Friday 9:00am-4:00pm
Location: O’Connell Building, Chico State Campus
Grades: Target is first-year college freshmen students

Deadline to apply: Friday, June 7th
Fees: none

Additional Information:
- Snacks and refreshments will be given
- A laptop is strongly recommended
- Opportunities will exist to interact with Google Engineers
- A day field trip on July 31 to Google’s Headquarters in Mountain View (San Francisco Bay Area)
- After successful completion, students enroll in Connect with Google program that can be a bridge to future internships, scholarships, and conference invites

Program Coordinator: Dr. Jaime Raigoza, Assistant Professor, Department of Computer Science

Questions? Email Dr. Jaime Raigoza at jraigoza@csuchico.edu

Please make sure to complete the application thoroughly. This is the first impression you will make upon those who admit students to the summer course. Students will be notified of acceptance by June 14.

Email to jraigoza@csuchico.edu or mail complete application by Friday, June 7th to:

5. Essays - Please provide detailed answers to the following questions. Neatness is important. Attach additional pages if needed for this section.

   a. Why are you interested in attending the summer program 3-week course?

   b. Do you foresee any reason you cannot attend every day, all 3 weeks, July 29th-August 16th, Monday-Friday?

   c. Describe a significant challenge you faced and how you overcame it?
d. It is the student’s responsibility to have secured housing accommodations in Chico during July 29 thru August 16. If the student has applied for on-campus housing (i.e. dorms), this is not enough because on-campus housing does not open until a few days prior to the start of the Fall semester. Do you already have housing in Chico between July 29 thru August 16?

If yes, please specify.

If not, it is the student’s responsibility to communicate with Dr. Jaime Raigoza via email; And Dr. Raigoza may be able to suggest housing options. Any housing expenses is the responsibility of the student.

6. Commitment to Program

Student Agreement

I am aware that my admission into the 2019: Google’s Computer Science Summer Institute Extension Program is completely voluntary. If accepted, I fully respect the responsibilities and expectations of Summer Program. I realize that the experience is more than just a summer course, but a commitment to my education. I am willing to commit my time and energy to achieve my academic and personal potential by attending all days of the Summer Program.

I state the above information is accurate to the best of my knowledge.
